FATHER DON'S REFLECTION

JN 2:1-11

"They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, how does your concern affect me?' 'Do whatever he tells you.' Jesus told them, 'Fill the jars with water.' ... 'You have kept the good wine until now.' ...so, revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him."

180 gallons of choice wine was produced by Jesus at the wedding feast. Mary knew that her son would not refuse her request, but I doubt she knew to what measures he was going to fulfill her wishes. The headwaiter was downright confused. He had no clue that Jesus preformed the miracle and he even mocked the bridegroom for the mistake he assumed he made. Only the servers knew what happened; it was apparent that the disciples also knew. I am sure that the bridegroom was clueless to what the headwaiter told him. I am sure he thought he did serve the best wine first. There are many confused people in this story.

One thing is clear: Jesus' glory was revealed at the marriage feast of Cana. There are no miracles in John's Gospel; they are called signs. The marriage feast in Cana was the first of seven signs that Jesus would do in John's Gospel. Once again, we see a tension between Mary and Jesus. We also see that Mary thought nothing of the response that Jesus gave to her. Mary knew that Jesus would take care of the problem. She would not have told the servers what she did if that wasn't true.

So already in chapter two of John's Gospel, we see that the disciples believe in the power of Jesus. They knew that there was a power inside Jesus that called them to believe in him, heart and soul. It was a miracle that would make a lasting impression on those who saw it. Jesus came as a guest to the reception and he saved the bridegroom the embarrassment of running out of wine. Not only did he restore the wine, but it was the choicest wine, which makes no sense if the people had already been drinking freely.

It reminds us that God's ways are not our ways. Jesus offered a gift that far exceeds what his mother was asking. The abundance of fine wine was truly an unexpected present to the bride and groom. But isn't that the way of the Lord? Not only does he meet our needs, but he goes beyond our wildest dreams. How do we respond to a God who lavishes such wonderful things in our life? We may not receive large amounts of wine to save a party, but we do receive many gifts that allow us to know that God is always with us. We may panic from time to time when we feel our needs are not met. When we start drifting away from God, we need to remind ourselves that he is the giver of all gifts. We may stumble and fall. We may feel that our wine is running out, but God will never let us run empty. He will fill us with the choicest of gifts to make our lives livable and sustaining. As Mary trusted Jesus to care for the needs at the reception, we must also trust that Jesus will care for all our needs. It may not be as dramatic as the "sign" in the gospel today, but it will be life-giving. Jesus has revealed his glory to us all. We must recognize that glory in our own life and celebrate it. We are called to recognize the signs in our life that are from Jesus and show our gratitude for the gifts he has placed in our lives. Have a great week!

True friends walk together through their weakness. Betrayal, gossip, and scandal: these traits often characterize friendships portrayed in the entertainment industry. What if our friendships, were instead marked by support no matter the circumstances? This theme explores the role of authentic friendships and their ability to empower us to greatness.

Craft Show Thank You!

Dear Parishioners,

George and Maxine want to thank you for sharing Christ's love in the form of time, skills, and effort at the St. John's Christmas craft fair. God blessed us with awesome crafters and guests. Also, I can't complain about the torrential downpours that we experienced Dec. 1st. It brought so many visitors to dry out indoors, enjoy buying gifts for their friends and family, eat in the "dining room", and buy raffle tickets. Congratulations to the winners! It is always especially amazing to witness the generosity of our bakers of the parish. That booth made almost $800 with a small amount of expenses. After our crew made ready the space with Christmas décor, and the crafters' booths decorated their booths and crafts with that special spirit, our hearts were filled with awe at all you do. Thanks again for all the workers. We couldn't do it without you.

Love,
Maxine & George.

"Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City"

7:00 – 9:00 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 6 in Conference Room (Previously Rm D&E)

In this brilliant, heartbreaking book, Matthew Desmond takes us into the poorest neighborhoods of Milwaukee to tell the story of eight families on the edge facing eviction. As we see families forced into shelters, squalid apartments, or more dangerous neighborhoods, we bear witness to the human cost of America's vast inequality—and to people's determination and intelligence in the face of hardship. The one-time meeting will be facilitated by parishioner Hugh Campbell on Feb. 6. In preparation, please purchase (only $11.55 new at Amazon) and read the book in time for our discussion.

St. Valentine Marriage Enrichment: "Growing Together Through Differences"

Saturday, Feb. 16, 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. in the Pavilion-
Must pre-register no later than Feb

Free child care for attendees at time of registration
Want a deeper meaning in your St. Valentine's Day celebration? Engaged and married couples are invited to hear a light-hearted reflection on Marriage, which includes a catered dinner. Our presenters are parishioners Chitra and Ron Meyer. They have been married for 18 years and have two children. Vikram is a junior at St. X and Asha is an 8th grader at Mother Teresa. Having a marriage of different cultures (India and US) as well as different religions (Hindu and Catholic) has brought unique challenges which have turned into unique blessings to them personally and as a family. They will share their journey and how these differences have made their marriage stronger. The cost for this event is $15 per couple. Bring a bottle of wine for your table (optional).

"I Have Called You By Name; You are Mine..."

Isaiah 43: 1

Our theme highlights that we have all been called by God and to emphasize places within our community where others can execute their time and talents. In this section, we highlight parishioners, groups and ministries within the St. John Parish who have been called by God to give, serve, and share their talents. Please contact Angela at apugliano@stjohnwc.org if you have a ministry in mind.

Gratitude for Our Bereavement Co-Chairs

At St. John, our parish community is like family. We celebrate during good times like during our festival or Generations of Faith. However, as a community, we are also grateful that during hard times, our parishioners are there to support one another. That is why we are here to say "thank you" to those ladies who are co-coordinators of our Bereavement ministry, Eileen Andrews and Julie Chapman.

Because of their hard work, our funeral attendees have been able to enjoy a comforting meal after funeral services. Coordinating with the families' schedule during their time of grief is not an easy job. Julie and Eileen's hard work is evident. These ladies also have help from a list of people who assist with serving, cooking, and baking; all of their dedication is so important to this ministry and we are so grateful to everyone who is involved! Eileen and Julie have both been parishioners for over 25 years. Their service to the church extends beyond providing for our funeral services; they have both been actively involved in the festival and many other activities. Thank you, Eileen and Julie!

Fr. Don's New Book

Were Not Our Hearts Burning is Fr. Don West's third installment in his trilogy of Gospel Reflections. Be sure to check out his latest thought-provoking collection by buying the book online at Amazon, or in the parish office. If you buy in person, the book is $10. If you buy the "trilogy" of books together, they will sell for $25 as a set. Please consider picking up the trilogy in the office or on Amazon.

Share-A-Lunch

Jan. 27, 9 a.m.

Thank you to all contributors of SAL in December! SAL will meet again at 9 a.m. on Sunday, Jan. 27 in the Pavilion. Please come join us! We will be preparing about 300 peanut butter sandwiches and packing lunches. (Lunches are distributed at Reach Out Lakota and St. Francis- Cincinnati.) In addition to the peanut butter, bread, fruit (raw or cups), and juice boxes needed for the lunches, we welcome other non-perishable donations, too. The pantries are in particular need of healthy cereal, canned meat/ tuna, canned fruit, canned beans/ vegetables, shampoo, baby wipes, deodorant, and female sanitary items. (Since we do not have a refrigerator, please refrain from donating natural peanut butter or highly perishable fruit.) Donations can be dropped off during our meeting time or in advance at the parish office. Also, if one more person could commit to arriving at 8:30 a.m. each month to help us set up, we would greatly appreciate it. Thanks again for your support! Please contact Diane Claytor at 374-3349 with questions.
