FATHER DON'S REFLECTION

MT 5:17-37

"If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body thrown into Gehenna. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body go into Gehenna."

It is a good thing that Jesus is not speaking literally with these words. I don't know about you, but I would have some serious problems functioning in the world if I did take Jesus literally. But Jesus calls us to take a hard look at our lives in today's Gospel reading. He asks us to examine just who we are in relation to the world we live in. How do we respond to the commandments that are set before us? Jesus tells us that, "unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven." Do we measure up to that challenge? Or are we people that say all the right things, but our actions don't reflect what we have said.

In Matthew's chapters five to seven we have the Sermon on the Mount. It is Jesus at his best giving us a moral compass to use in our daily lives. It is the Good News for salvation. While it is the Good News it is not easy news. It is something that we must invest a lot of energy into, and takes a lot of our time. It is more than what we do when we come to church on Sunday. The Eucharist is something to begin our week with, but it must continue beyond the Sunday liturgy.

We must examine our lives and see if we measure up to the high standard that Jesus has placed before us. It really, in many ways, calls us to have a change of heart. It calls us to look at how we treat others around us. It challenges us to let go of things that keep us from a right relationship with God. If we don't know how to treat one another with love and respect, how in world can we say that we love and respect God? It is only when we see Christ in others that we can truly understand how to love God. When we fail to understand this, we fail to fully embrace the Good News.

Our faith is not something that we can merely phone in. It is not a giant check list that we can keep and once it is finished heaven is ours. Jesus' message to us today is that it must be a life choice to embrace the Good News; a way of life that becomes a true part of us. It is doing the will of the Father and being other-centered in our lives. For me, I know I must be better at it. there are many things that have to be cut out of my life to be a better Christian. There can be no off switch for me when it comes to fulfilling the will of the Father. But I know if I embrace the gospel message with all my heart, I can be a better disciple.

So, we all need to take a look at ourselves to see what things might need to be changed. For some it may be a minor flaw that can be corrected. For others it may be a more dramatic change of heart. The good thing is that when we identify what we need to change, Jesus will be there to give us the strength to grow through the challenge. I believe it is worth the effort. How about you? Do you truly want to grow as part of the Body of Christ? Have a great week!

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Matthew 5: 17-37

How often do I say words that are neither kind nor appropriate?

Do you find yourself continuing to criticize, judge, or demean others?

In today's Gospel, Jesus is very clear about what we are not to do! I challenge you to take a moment and ask yourself: Do I take Jesus' words seriously? Do I strive to live as Christ calls us to live or do I continue to act in a way that is not healthy for me and the people around me? Each day, each moment, we all have the choice to be kind and spread goodness - What will you choose today?

We focus this section of the bulletin on those who are important parts of our community: those who volunteer their time and talents to making our St. John community the collective Body of Christ.

John Insko: A Volunteer That Works ‘Round the Clock

John Insko has been a huge asset to St. John in a variety of ways. You might have seen or heard his name in reference to his chair position on our parish finance committee, or as a Knight of Columbus.

John works tirelessly for this community. He works the entire festival weekend in the Poker booth with the Knights of Columbus. He is also instrumental during fundraising campaigns for the parish. Apart from parish organizations, John is a lector, sacristan and eucharistic minister at the 5pm mass. He often serves as an altar attendant at weekend and special masses.

John is dedicated to his family and his parish. He and his wife Phyllis joined the parish in 2002. On top of all of his volunteer work, he works as a manager for Amerifirst Home Mortgage. Thank you for all that you do, John!

Honor a Loved One in the Bulletin

The section on the back of the parish bulletin is available to list a deceased loved one’s name. The cost is $60.00 per name and their name will remain on the bulletin for one year. This will help defray the cost of printing our bulletin for the entire year. If interested, please clip and fill out the slip below. You can put the slip and payment in the collection basket or mail to the Parish Office. Please make checks payable to Diocesan.

Loved One’s Name _____ Your Name _____ Billing Address _____ _____ Phone Number _____ E-mail Address _____
